What to do in the event of a claim

Contact the Emergency Contact Number for assistance and advice.

Medical Expenses or Emergency

You may choose to retain the account and doctor's statement and present a claim for reimbursement upon your return. These claims should be submitted to SAICORP who will forward the documentation to the insurer on your behalf.

Loss or Damage to Baggage/Money

It is important to report the incident to the relevant authority, i.e. Police, Airline, etc and obtain written verification that you have reported the loss.

You may choose to retain the account and present it together with any applicable police report for reimbursement upon your return. These claims should be submitted to SAICORP who will forward the documentation to the insurer on your behalf.
